RAG RAG RAG.

Hello Duxford and Henlow Camp ( RAF Sig. Museum)

Today, villagers of the small village of Beugen will lay flowers at the Pinpoint monument. This monument was erected in remembrance of the successful flight by F/O Bell and his crew and the parachuting of secret agents Piet Hoekman and Bram Grisnigt, on the night of September 20 seventy five years ago.

I am now the last living World War Two Dutch secret agent of MI6 Dutch Section.

It is a great honour to take part in this historic Mk7 link between the Amsterdam Resistance Museum, Duxford and Henlow Camp RAF Sig. Museum.

I wish to take this opportunity to express my great admiration for the brave aircrews who flew from RAF Tempsford Airfield in support of Resistance movements in occupied Europe during World War Two.

Many of the aircrews and secret agents lost their lives on these secret missions.

We will always remember them.

With warm regards and best wishes

Bram Grisnigt. St-Patrick.
